DATES FROM ST. JOSEPH TO SEPT. 23.

Progress of the Great Rebellion.

YREKA, Sept. 28th,
San Francisco, Sept. 27th.

Pony arrived at Ruby Valley at 2 o'clock this morning, with dates to the 23d Sept.

Advices from Richmond Sept. 18th, state that it is generally conceded that Slidell goes to France soon.

Gen. Floyd had an engagement with the Federals on the 10th, and routed them, killing 600, and wounding 100.

Things are remarkably quiet on the Virginia side of the Potomac.

There is no recognition of the rebel flag in Spain, or their ports, notwithstanding the explanation made by the Spanish Minister to Secretary Seward, on Thursday.

The reported proclamation of the Captain General occupies the attention of the State Department.

Subscriptions to the Federal National Loan exceed $9,000,000.

The Spanish Minister called to assure the Secretary of State that the reports from Charleston that the Capt. General of Cuba had issued a proclamation recognizing the rebel flag, was untrue.

Two schooners were seized at New York, on the 16th.

Owing to information received at the Post-office Department that the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad was entirely unprotected from the rebels, and St. Joseph was in their hands, it has been ordered that California mails be carried via Davenport to Council Bluffs.

The Department also received information that all officers and employees of the Overland Mail Company are rebels.

WASHINGTON 26.—On the 12th inst. the army made an advance on Elkwater, Va. with a force of 18,000. Having driven back a detachment of 18th Indiana and 3d and 6th Ohio regiments, shell from one of Loomis' guns fired into the enemy's camp at a distance of two miles killed 10 and wounded 4.

The 13th Indiana regiment had several skirmishes with superior numbers on the evening of the 12th and killed twelve, only a trifling loss on our side.

It was reported on the 17th that Sterling Price with 17,000 men surrounded Lexington Mo., and sent a summons to Col. Mulligan to surrender. He refused, whereupon Price gave him till Monday morning at 5 o'clock to surrender; if he did not, he would march on him under the black flag.

It is confidentially thought in military quarters that Gen. Sturgess, federal, has reached Lexington from St. Joseph and that Price will be cut off or forced to retreat.

The steamer Sunshine was seized by rebels at Lexington Mo.

The steamer Sioux was attacked at Glasgow but escaped.

All the banks at New Orleans have suspended specie payment. On the 18th Treasury notes were all at par. The gun-boat Conestoga captured the rebel steamers Nephenson and Gazelle on Cumberland river, on the 16th, one contained one hundred tons of iron. Reliable news from Lexington to Saturday evening, shows that there had been no fight up to that time; though the Federal troops had been summoned to surrender by Price, whose army was 1700 strong. Gen. Pope was reinforced at Lexington on the 18th with 5000 men. The Union of both Houses of the Maryland Legislature refused to meet in the morning of the 19th. The latest advises from Lexington, Mo., on Monday afternoon says that Price sent word to Gen. Mulligan demanding his surrender.

Mulligan replied "Go to h—l." An attack was immediately made, opening with artillery and under its cover making a sortie on the town. They were repulsed with a heavy loss by Mulligan's forces, with little loss of the U. S. troops. Price was said to be around Lexington still.

Price commenced an attack on our entrenchments at Lexington on Monday. The fight was very severe all day. Price assied the troops, but was repulsed with seven lost. The fight was renewed by Price on Tuesday morning last, feebly.

LEAVENWORTH, Sept. 20.—A citizen of this place who was at Lexington at the time of the surrender of the Federals, state that the troops had been 36 hours without water. The surrender was unconditional. The rebels claim to have 37,000 men, but were badly armed and without organization, as many had joined but a day or two before. Our informant escaped to the town after the surrender.

The U. S. Marshal seized the office of the Louisville Courier, secession, and also arrested Ex-Governor Morehead and Reuben Dunnell, one of the proprietors.

The transmission of telegraph news, south of Louisville has been interdicted. The lines are still interrupted.

Later from Lexington say the Federals, after fighting two days, were compelled to surrender, being cut off from water. The rebels were successfully repulsed three times on the 19th, by the Irish brigade at the point of the bayonet, and had not water given out, they would doubtless have held the rebels at bay till reinforced. Every volley from the Federal guns told with fearful destruction on the enemy's ranks. No statement of the loss is given.

From Mexico.

The S. F. Herald, contains the following news from the Mexican Extraordinary:

The forces of the Government under Gen. Ortega at last have given those of Marquez a lesson they will not soon forget. On the 13th an advance of Marquez was surprised and defeated at the hacienda of Atenco. The same night, at about eleven o'clock, the forces of General Ortega came up with the entire force of Marquez at the village of Jalatlaco. So soon as Marquez learned that General Ortega was in command, he fled, leaving his disordered troops to make their escape as best they could. The resistance appears to have been short and feeble and the dispersion complete.

The guerrilleros Carbajal and Cuellar charged upon the disorganized and flying forces of Marquez, and the slaughter is represented as having been considerable, whilst the loss on the side of the Government was comparatively insignificant. Marquez abandoned everything, and his artillery, ammunition, and a greater portion of his arms were captured. A great number of prisoners were made, but all of inferior rank, or common soldiers. None of the many generals who have linked their fortunes with Marquez were taken.

Marquez himself fled towards the road leading to the interior. On the 15th he passed Tepeji del Rio, and on the 17th reached Arroyozarco, accompanied by a few hundred men who had already joined him again.

After the triumph at Jalatlaco a descent was made upon Huixquilucan, where the banditti of the valley have their headquarters and several prisoners were taken, a few killed, and the rest put to flight. Buitron was also driven from his position in the Monte de las Cruces. Another victory, it is claimed, has been gained over another party of bandits and defenders of the clergy near Tlapam and still other victories of less importance really none—are reported.

The triumphant army of General Ortega has come into the city, and the defeated Generals are no doubt, gathering together their scattered forces. But it will take them some time to make front again on account of the scarcity of arms. A large number of important papers were taken, and we hear that many persons in this city are shown to be in relation with Marquez. We have heard strange reports in this connection, which, if true, will astonish many of our readers. We do not know if it be the intention of the Government to make public the information thus obtained or to reserve it for its own special fund of knowledge.

The news from the interior is satisfactory to the Government. Gen. Doblado, whose name has been used by the opponents of the Government in connection with their plans, has moved against Mejia in Queretaro. He arrived at Queretaro on the 16th. Gen. Doblado assures the Government of his respect and obedience. The order sent from here for the arrest of Gen. Robles had been received by Gen. Doblado, who gives his assurance that Robles shall be arrested if he enter the State of Guanajuato. The forces of Mejia were at San Sebastian Bernal, and were reported to 1,500 strong. These will doubtless be made to fly to the Sierra again.

An unrobbed diligence is one of the novelties of the day. A diligence with the passengers stark naked is almost as great a novelty. Two of the latter have been furnished in the past week. On one occasion there was not clothing enough in the party to cover the body of an infant, and there were several women in the stage. On the second occasion the female passengers managed to borrow blankets, rolled up in which, like Cleopatras, they came to their Cesars in Mexico.

The exportation of uncoined gold and silver is prohibited by the present tariff. Notwithstanding permits were given for the exportation of these metals and considerable sums have been sent abroad in this manner in the past year, but this exportation is again stopped by an order of the Minister of Finance.

The Indians near Ixmiquilpan have raised the cry of "death to the whites" and a few days ago entered that town and murdered some twenty persons. The priests have induced them to believe that the whites are opposed to their religion.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 3, 1861.

A Repulse from the Right Quarter

There has been a strong desire manifested by some of the democratic editors to go along as best they could, with their Secession brethren; and this has been done until a love for their country has compelled them to withdraw from that position, and to denounce Secession and Secession editors with just indignation. One of these editors, thus forced by public sentiment and private judgment to speak out upon the questions which agitate the country, is him of the Vancouver Chronicle, and he does it in a way that must make the Advertiser—if it be not sold heart and soul to Jeff. Davis—feel its force and power.

Such rebukes of Secessionism come from the right quarter, relieve us of some unpleasant duty—and we pass them over, for the time, into the hands of Union Democrats. We trust that the Chronicle will continue his illustrations of the character of Secessionism and the Advertiser—which so far have done the public a favor and himself distinguished honor. We quote a portion of the leading editorial article in the last Chronicle.

The Chronicle thus estimates the character of that "peace" which the Advertiser is so anxious to force upon the country:

"By acceding to their [the Advertiser's] terms, we acknowledge in the first place the independence of the Southern Confederacy, and with it the destructive right of States to secede at pleasure and thus entail with this acknowledgment upon the United States, only a half year since so free, prosperous, proud and respected, the melancholy fate of the South American Republics, with its attending train of Santa Anna's, Rosa's, and Francia's.

In the second place we make the humiliating confession before the whole world, that we are the most shallow, unprincipled, cowardly people upon the face of the earth, and if we do not take upon ourselves the whole measure of contempt, detestation and hatred, which we would deserve by concluding a dishonorable peace, we would have to prepare, should we be unwilling to submit to such treatment, for a serious and open rupture with the rest of the world, who would heartily despise us.

We would confess that we are shallow, because we did not immediately recognize the right of the Southern States to rebel, but first involve the country in an expenditure of several hundred millions of dollars for no other purpose but to demonstrate in the most approved manner to all the nations of the earth, what a miserable race of cowards the twenty million of inhabitants in the Northern States are.

We would confess, that we are unprincipled because, without having any serious intent, without having formed a madly resolve to defend the Union, the Constitution and the Government, and assert our nationality, we sent legions of our fellow-citizens to the field of battle and hurled thousands of them into a premature grave or made them cripples for life with the apparently sole purpose, and surely with no other result, but to make ourselves far more miserable than ever before.

We would confess, that we are cowardly, because one or two lost battles had enervated us to such a degree, that all the mighty preparations for war, the enthusiastic patriotism of the masses, the challenges defiantly sent to all enemies of the Union are forgotten, and that we had given to the world a practical illustration of a panic or stampede of twenty million people.

This is the price of peace at this juncture of affairs. Can the Advertiser or others of our "peace" loving contemporaries purchase it cheaper? If they can, why do they hide their light under a bushel? Why do they lament and whine instead of unfolding their plans of salvation? Or will these peace-preachers dare to tell us, if the Government accedes to their terms, that the victorious Confederates will recognize in our humiliation a sufficient vindication of their pretended outraged rights and will joyously and with extended hand of fellowship return to their old allegiance? Will they dare to assert that the judgment of other nations will be more favorable than above indicated? Do they really think they the Government will receive blessings instead of curses from the members of those families whose dearest relations have been needlessly killed in battle? And finally, will they dare to couple in future with the American name the words patriotism, nationality, character, courage, and honor? These are questions which we would like to see answered."

But the Advertiser never will answer them.

Oregon Agricultural State Fair

The managers of the State Agricultural Society appear to have manifested great wisdom in selecting the place for holding its first fair. Oregon City is centrally located to the Willamette Valley, and is convenient of access to residents on the lower and upper Columbia—at least more so to the last named places than any other point which would be as convenient to the Willamette. The choice of ground for the erection of buildings, is also satisfactory to those who have visited it.—It is about two miles below Oregon City, on the west bank of the Clackamas river, about half a mile from its mouth. It is reached from Portland by steamer to the Clackamas Rapids, and from thence up the east side of the Clackamas a few hundred yards, crossing to the west side,—by a foot-bridge if a-foot—and from thence a quarter of a mile further to the Fair grounds.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE FAIR GROUND.

The buildings designed for the exhibition of stock, farm products, works of taste and art, &c., form two sides of an irregular enclosure, the east side of which is fenced by the Clackamas river; the north by a high fence and the other two as described. The aggregate length of these sides is near two hundred yards, and the width is, perhaps, twenty-five feet. The west side is devoted to stalls for live-stock, and the south for miscellaneous articles. A pretty heavy growth of timber surrounds the enclosure. There has been a large amount of labor expended on the race-course which will come in for a more extended notice hereafter.

THE FIRST DAY.

As in all similar cases, the first day was consumed in making entries, and completing the improvements. Following the advice given in the Oregonian, large numbers of farmers had brought their families and made their camps near the Fair ground. The arrivals of stock includes some noted names, but so far as we were able to judge the entries up to four o'clock gave but a faint index to the amount and character of superior stock in the State.

There was a large number of visitors from Portland and other points, but it was evident that people were holding back until everything had been arranged.

MASKED BATTERIES OF THE PRESS.—The S. F. Mirror says: "Paragraphs written with the design of casting ridicule upon the troops who, from the want of officers capable of preserving discipline, beat a hasty retreat at Bull Run, are as common in Northern newspapers as were articles of a similar character in British and Tory journals in the days of the Revolution, when dealing with the 'Yankees.' It has been abundantly proved that no army that ever courted the hazards of an engagement exhibited more bravery and subordination than did the Federal forces up to the moment when the loss of confidence in their officers caused them to retrace the ground they had conquered on the preceding day. The venal wretch who, while conducting a Northern journal, can turn aside to abuse or disparage the struggling thousands who have voluntarily given up all that makes earth attractive for the sake of preserving our endangered nationality, is worse than they who have taken up arms against us, and deserve the traitor's doom. The land is full of such falsifiers—men who, succeeding in their object, would have no home, no race, no country, and no reward but the lasting scorn alike of those they had betrayed and those they had befriended."

THE BRITISH REGIMENT.—"The British regiment organized in the city of New York, is rapidly increasing its strength. A large body from one of the regiments returned from the seat of war, after three months service, has been enrolled in its ranks, and a party of nearly forty Cornish miners have joined and will form the nucleus of a company of sappers and miners, which will be of essential service in the field. A great portion of the men are natives of the old country, and the officers are generally men who have been engaged in active war. Captain Robertson, the hero of many a hard fought battle on the plains of India and the Crimean peninsula, will take the command of the first company. Captain Lazarus, also a British officer, will command the second company. We thank John Bull warmly for this evidence of sympathy for an undivided Union. These Englishmen show more loyalty for the stars and stripes than Northern sympathizers with the rebellion, commonly called "peace men."

On Saturday afternoon John Denier, the rope-walker, accomplished a feat that completely eclipsed all his previous performances in crossing the Schuylkill river upon a tight rope, with his head enveloped in a sack!—The crowd that had assembled to witness his daring was immense, and completely blocked up Wire Bridge, which the police twice cleared in vain. Mr. Denier effected the transit with firm but measured pace, while the gaping multitude held its breath and strained its eyes to follow him. Once, only once, he was seen to stumble, and then to tremble violently as though he was about to fall, and many turned pale with the horror of that "middle passage."

Details of Eastern News.

AFFAIRS AT ALBEMARLE SOUND, N. C.—A despatch from Washington states that the commerce of Albemarle Sound has recently been very heavy, the number of vessels entering its several inlets numbering 15 daily. Among the vessels seized at the Inlet, was the ship Henry C. Brooks, which was on the point of sailing for Liverpool, with a cargo composed chiefly of naval stores, including nine hundred barrels of spirits of turpentine. The same dispatch tells us that among the property captured at the forts, were three hundred barrels of powder, together with shot and shell sufficient for its use. This sets at rest the story which reached us from secession sources, to the effect that the surrender of the position was made a necessity through the release of want of ammunition.

At the last account from the Inlet, the Pawnee and Monticello were lying in a position to command, with their guns, all approach to the forts by the Sound. The troops in the forts are well supplied with provisions and munitions, and were hard at work mounting guns to command the land side.

REBEL PRISONERS FROM HATTERAS.—The prisoners who arrived here yesterday on the Minnesota, are represented as being barefooted or nearly so. The use of razors seems to be unknown to the great majority of them, and their unshorn hair adds much to the disagreeable appearance of the motley crowd. Many of them claim that they were impressed into the Confederate service, and state that they are good Union men, but to save their lives they were obliged to take up arms for the Confederacy. Most of the common soldiers say that they are glad that they have been taken prisoners, and seem very anxious to know where they will be sent now they are here. They state that their officers have studiously endeavored to keep from them any Northern papers, but were willing to let them have and read any Secession journals which contained the glowing account of their victories. Most of the rebel officers were clad in a species of blue cloth or flannel, decorated with stripes and buttons, not unlike those worn in the U. S. Navy. The men are served with rations and grog precisely as the sailors of the Minnesota, and the eagerness with which they grab their allowance, especially the grog, would seem to indicate that they have heretofore been kept on short allowance, a conclusion to which their cadaverous cheeks add no little weight.

The rebel Commodore was strutting about the decks of the noble ship, which he himself once commanded, in full uniform, and wearing the eagles and stars of the government against which he had raised his traitorous arm. His sword, which was paid for with Federal money, has been presented to the President.

A communication in the Times says: Reliable information has reached me that secret associations, not very recent in origin, have been formed among the colored population of the South, which have in view an effort, at the right time, to cast off the yoke of Slavery. This information is derived indirectly from the Southern blacks themselves. No indication of this fact has hitherto been publicly given, so far as I am aware. It seems desirable that the authorities at Washington should be advised of it, in order that they may not be surprised by the earthquake shock. But may be prepared, by judicious control, to prevent lawless outrage, and protect the lives especially of loyal men.

Some hundreds of laborers have been busily at work, at St. Louis, for two weeks past, digging extensive trenches and building great earthworks and fortifications at numerous chosen points, commanding the western, southwestern and southern entrances to the city. The object of these defensive preparations is probably to render the city safe under a much smaller body of troops than would otherwise be necessary for its defense.

The Paris correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says: As soon as the tidings of the rout at Manassas arrived in Europe, M. Thouvenel received the agents of the Confederates, in an unofficial way, indeed, but one more victory of the Secessionists would be followed by the recognition of the Southern Confederacy.

The Hon. Joseph Holt, in his speech at Boston, on Tuesday night, said that disloyalty in the midst of us is one of the worst obstacles to the success of the Union cause, and that he rejoiced in the late decided measures of the President to subdue this element of weakness. It was in vain to toil at the pumps while men were kept on board boring holes in the bottom of the ship.

J. C. Rahning, a merchant doing business at No. 36 South street, was arrested last night on a charge of endeavoring to send cannon to the rebels at Wilmington, North Carolina, from Nassau, New Providence. It appears that he approached the commander of the schooner Arctic, then at Nassau, in order to induce him to ship the cannon, two in number, but the Captain thought it would be difficult enough to run the blockade without the cannon, or easier to escape if caught provided that no such freight were found on his vessel, and therefore declined. The rebels, it is understood, failed to get the cannon, which are now, according to the statement of the prisoner, in this city. Rahning came to the city, and it was supposed he would continue, if possible, the business begun at Nassau. He was arrested and has been sent to Fort Lafayette.

CITY.

Recorder's Court.—John Golden was taken before Recorder Risley, yesterday, and fined ten dollars and costs, for violating Ordinance No. 10.

Vancouver Items.—The District Court for the First Judicial District of Vancouver, W. T., is now being held, with a large docket. Judge Strobe's charge to the Grand Jury is favorably spoken of, especially his comment on the law of treason. The United States is represented by Mr. Gilleroy, Esq., District Attorney. A full bar of able and talented gentlemen, seemed to indicate that the Scriptural description of the eagle still is true, in more senses than one. The carcass ought to be large enough to draw a prize at the cattle show. We're each one a fair shake.

The Massachusetts is still in port, with some mules and Government property, which she took from the Sound.

Three hundred mules are at this post, awaiting transportation.

San Francisco, Sept. 25th.—The proprietor of the Queen City Hotel shot his cook, a Kanaka, yesterday, with whom he was quarreling. His wounds are severe, but not known to be fatal.

The banking house of T. S. Fiske & Co., of Sacramento, was closed yesterday by attachment.

The steamboat runners who went out to Carquinez yesterday noon, made up before reaching the ground.

The U.S. Marshal has seized another lot of smuggling tobacco from Louisiana.

Income Tax.—Some misapprehension exists in the subject of the income tax. The act declares that the tax shall only be computed on the excess of the income over $800, and all other taxes, &c., have been deducted. Thus, if a person's income is $2000, and his other taxes amount to $100, the income tax is only to be computed on $2000. Almost every newspaper who has spoken of the bill, has set down this to be computed on all incomes exceeding $800, implying that if a person's gross fortune is $1,300, and his other taxes $100, the income tax must be computed on $1200. This is not the case.

Pensioners, Look to your Oaths.—The Pension Agent has been informed from headquarters that each recipient of a pension will hereafter be required to take a new form of oath, which not simply binds them to support the Constitution, but also to defend the Government against domestic as well as foreign enemies. The new oath is as follows:

"I do solemnly swear that I will support, protect and defend the Constitution and Government of the United States against all enemies, whether domestic or foreign, and that I will bear true faith, allegiance, and loyalty to the same, any ordinance, resolution, or law of any State Convention or Legislature to the contrary notwithstanding; and, further, that I do this with a full determination, pledge, and purpose, without any mental reservation or evasion whatever; and, further, that I will well and faithfully perform all the duties which may be required of me by law. So help me God."

The Mother of Presidents' finds her tea plant a "just now." Common green tea is found at Fredricksburg, Va.

Births:

In this city, Oct. 23, 1861, Delah Ruette, daughter of Robert and Emily Porter, in the fourth year of her age.

The funeral services will take place in the Presbyterian Church, at ten o'clock A. M., this day, and the friends of the family, and the community generally, are invited to attend. Services to be conducted by Rev. Mr. Caffrey.

☞ The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Placed in an illustrious example, in shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; and proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary academical degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of the profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing a personal interview in corresponding, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address L. J. CZAPKAY, M. Laws of the United States.

Passed at the First Session of the Thirty-Seventh Congress.

[Public—No 30.]

AN ACT authorizing the Secretary of War to reimburse volunteers for expenses incurring in employing regimental and other bands, and for other purposes

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be and he is hereby authorized and directed to refund, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the volunteers called out by the President's proclamation of the fifteenth April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, such sums of money as may have been expended by the said volunteers in the employment of regimental or company bands during the period of their service under said proclamation: Provided, The amount to be allowed shall not exceed that to be paid to volunteer bands regularly mustered into the service under the President's proclamation of May third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted That the President, in accepting and organizing volunteers under the act entitled "An act to authorize the employment of volunteers to aid in enforcing the laws and protecting public property," approved July twenty-two, eighteen hundred and sixty one, may accept the service of such volunteers without previous proclamation, and in such numbers from any State or States as, in his discretion, the public service may require

Approved, July 31, 1861

[Public—No 31.]

AN ACT to increase the consular representation of the United States during the present insurrection.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States may, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint consuls at any foreign ports where he shall deem it advisable for the purpose of preventing piracy, with such compensation, not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars per annum, as he shall think proper, to hold their offices respectively during the pleasure of the President, and in every case such compensation to cease with the restoration of internal peace within the United States And the President may, during the present insurrection, increase the compensation of any consul in foreign ports, if he shall deem it necessary, so as not, however, to exceed the sum of fifteen hundred dollars in any case. But this power shall cease with the re establishment of internal peace as aforesaid

Approved, Aug 2, 1861

[Public—No 32.]

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act supplementary to the act entitled 'An act providing for a naval peace establishment, and for other purposes,' passed March twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and four.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the above entitled act be and the same is hereby amended by inserting after the word "captain," where the same first occurs in said act, the words, "or commander," so that the President shall be authorized to select the superintendents of the several navy yards and heads of bureaus from the captains or commanders of the navy of the United States

[Public—No 33.]

AN ACT concerning the Attorney General and the attorneys and marshals of the several districts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Attorney General of the United States be and he is hereby charged with the general superintendence and direction of the attorneys and marshals of all the districts in the United States and the Territories as to the manner of discharging their respective duties; and the said district attorneys and marshals are hereby required to report to the Attorney General an account of their official proceedings, and the state and condition of their respective offices, in such time and manner as the Attorney General may direct.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Attorney General be and he is hereby empowered, whenever in his opinion the public interest may require it, to employ and retain (in the name of the United States) such attorneys and counsellors at-law, as he may think necessary to assist the district attorneys in the discharge of their duties, and shall stipulate with such assistant counsel the amount of compensation

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Attorney General shall have power to increase the clerical force of his office to discharge the increased duties of the same occasioned by this act, by appointing additional clerks, not exceeding two, and may fix their compensation at an annual salary not exceeding fourteen hundred dollars each per annum

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease, Self Abuse, Nervous Debility Syphilis in all its stages, Stricture, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder Mercurial Rheumatism Scrofula Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Tumors, Ulcers, St Vitus Dance—in all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervousness, Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Prostration, Dimness of Vision with peculiarities of expression, Pimples on the face, Disagreeable Breath, Consumption, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back, Dull Heavy Languid Appearance, Female Irregularities—and all impurities of the blood, whether existing in a mature or infantile state, from whatever cause originating, no matter of how long standing or how severe the case, we warrant a cure, and in a shorter time than any other physician in this city can effect it. We may therefore be consulted with confidence by those who have been trifled with by other physicians and have failed in their means of cure. The medicines we employ are entirely vegetable containing no mercury, and free from mineral substances. During fifteen years of practice in Europe the Atlantic States and California, we have rescued from the jaws of death hundreds of victims, who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had either given up to die by their physicians, which warrants us in promising to the afflicted who may place themselves under our care a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health as they are the first cause of consumption, one of the many other diseases, and should be at once treated by the best skill in the country. A permanent cure is sure by every effected—many persons after having fallen into the hands of incompetent practitioners, have only failed to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution by filling the system with mercury which with the disease hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption But should the disease not run this terminal course, death speedily ends the victim carries the disease combined upon the children who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in Scrofula, ulcerous eruptions and other afflictions of the skin, bones, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave

Disease is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing but in the most fearful catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a storm upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave It destroys the nervous system rapidly wastes away the energies of life causes mental derangement, destroys the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage society business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust vigorous health

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures—Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State Oregon and Washington Territory by patients communicating their symptoms by letter

All business Correspondence strictly confidential Address DR L J CZAPKAY, Medical Institute Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the ravages of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, have their cases and remedial agent, and their [illegible] authenticated by a Notary Public The [illegible] imperiously command their publicity, and [illegible] their perusal to the attention of all afflicted

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of [illegible] things who may be unfortunate enough to be afflicted, where a permanent relief of their [illegible] obtained feels it his duty to thus publicly [illegible] his gre gratitude to Dr L J Czapkay for the [illegible] recovery of his health Borne down by the [illegible] symptoms incident to the vicious practices of [illegible] ble passion in youth, depressed in body and [illegible] to perform even the most trifling duty imposed [illegible] ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of [illegible] sicians, who at first regarded my disease of [illegible] portance—but alas! after a few weeks, and in [illegible] stances months, of their treatment, I found to my [illegible] able horror that instead of relief, my [illegible] more alarming in their torture; and being [illegible] I did see been, principally confined to the house, [illegible] would be little consequence I despaired of [illegible] my health strength & security, unless a [illegible] with but a faint hope, called upon Dr [illegible] examining my case prescribed some medicine which instantly relieved me of the dull pain and [illegible] heal I encouraged by the result, I resorted to [illegible] immediately under his case and by a strict [illegible] his directions and advice, my head became [illegible] ideas collected the constant pain in my back and [illegible] weakness of my limbs, the nervous, restless [illegible] I felt on the slightest alarm or excitement, the [illegible] and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want [illegible] in others, the incapability to study, and want of [illegible] the frightful exciting, and at times pleasurable [illegible] night followed by involuntary discharges have [illegible] passed, and in fact, in two months after [illegible] the cation, I felt gain inspired by a new life. [illegible] but a short time ago I contemplated to end [illegible] hand With the view to guard the unfortunate [illegible] inst the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it [illegible] offer this testimony to the merit and skill of [illegible] and recommend him to all who may stand in need [illegible] cal advice be assured by my own experience [illegible] under his care a radical and permanent cure will [illegible]
